

SAVE THE DATE

Pediatric Patients: Bridging the Readiness Gaps

Date: June 18, 2019

Location: Lansing Center, Lansing MI

An opportunity for hospitals, emergency medical services, public health and healthcare preparedness professionals to gather and strategize on how to move pediatric preparedness forward in Michigan.

Who Should Attend: Public health and healthcare leaders, emergency preparedness coordinators, emergency managers, physicians, nurses, pediatric champions and emergency medical technicians.

Register at <http://www.train.org/mi-train>. Course #1083034

Applications for continuing education credits are being submitted.

Funding for this conference was made possible by the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response through CFDA 93.074, Grant Number 6 NU90TP921906. The views expressed in written conference materials or publications and by speakers and moderators do not necessarily reflect the official policies of the Department of Health and Human Service, nor does the mention of trade names, commercial practices, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

